Privacy Policy

Slimvoice uses cookies to authenticate your login session, but performs no tracking or sharing of this cookie information with any third party.

Your email address is used to authenticate you to your Slimvoice account and send you important updates about your account. Your email address is never willingly shared with any third party, with the following exceptions listed below.

- Mailgun receives your email address in order to send transactional emails on behalf of Slimvoice.
- When you send an invoice via email, your email address is revealed to your client in the "reply to" header of the email.

Your password is hashed with bcrypt and the original is never stored.

Any other information entered into Slimvoice such as mailing addresses, clients, payments, notes, and application preferences, are strictly for presentation and functionality purposes within the app (e.g. to display your mailing address on your invoices). This information is never aggregated, used for advertising or marketing purposes, made publicly available, shared, or used for any purpose other than your own personal record keeping.

If you connect a Stripe account then Stripe will know that you are using Slimvoice as well as information about both parties whenever a transaction is completed.

Your connection to Slimvoice is encrypted with TLS v1.2.

Please keep the following points in mind:

- Slimvoice is software running on the Internet, and while I do my best to keep it secure, getting hacked is not outside the realm of possibility.
- Slimvoice runs on servers at Digital Ocean, so someone there or someone who infiltrates their networks could have access to your data. The data entered into Slimvoice is hosted in the United States.
- Slimvoice sends email with Mailgun, so someone there or someone who receives emails from Slimvoice will have access to any information placed into an email.
- Sensor Station LLC may be required to share your information when investigating violations of the Terms of Service.
- Sensor Station LLC may share your information if required to to comply with applicable laws, including compliance with warrants, court orders or other legal process.

Although infrequently, this Privacy Policy may change from time to time, so it is recommend that you periodically check back here to stay informed of any changes. Your continued use of Slimvoice after any change means that you agree with, and consent to be bound by, the new Privacy Policy. If you disagree with any changes in this Privacy Policy and do not wish your information to be subject to the revised Privacy Policy, you will need to delete your account and stop using Slimvoice.

Terms of Service

Slimvoice is provided on an "as is" and "as available" basis with no express or implied warranty for accuracy, functionality, or accessibility. Use this site at your own risk.

Do not submit illegal, harmful, threatening, vulgar, or obscene content. Sensor Station LLC assumes no liability for content that you or other users submit to the site. Sensor Station LLC does not endorse, insure, warrant, guarantee, or assume responsibility for any content entered into the site or any transaction between users of the site and their clients. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, in no event shall Sensor Station LLC, it's affiliates, agents, directors, employees, or licensors be liable for any indirect, incidental, punitive, special, consequential, or exemplary damages, including but without limitation damages for loss of profits, goodwill, use, data or other intangible losses that result from the use of, or inability to use this service. Under no circumstances will Sensor Station LLC be responsible for any damage, loss, or injury resulting from hacking, tampering, or other unauthorized access or use of the service or your account or the information contained therein.

Except for content submitted by users, all software, images, text, and intellectual property belong to Sensor Station LLC. Do not sell or redistribute any part of Slimvoice.

The Slimvoice site may change without prior notice, stop providing features to you or to users generally; or limit your usage. Your account may be permanently or temporarily terminated or suspended without notice if it is determined that you have violated any part of this agreement.

Security is very important. If you have identified a security issue, please use the feedback form to submit technical details. Responsible disclosure of a security issue will be handled with respect and gratitude: there is no intention of attacking or punishing those who have found security holes in Slimvoice in a non-malicious way.

Although infrequently, these Terms of Service may change from time to time, so it is recommend that you periodically check back here to stay informed of any changes. Your continued use of Slimvoice after any change means that you agree with, and consent to be bound by, the new Terms of Service. If you disagree with any changes in this Terms of Service and do not wish to be subject to the revised Terms of Service, you will need to delete your account and stop using Slimvoice.
